A LEGIONARY'S LIFE

Daily, 11am – 1pm and 2pm – 4pm

Find out what sort of kit a Legionary would have needed and have a go at making your own cut-out Roman soldier. Then meet the Centurion as he tests your fitness for the Roman Army and puts you through your paces in a drill session.

LIVING LIKE A LEGIONARY

Daily

Discover more about life as a Legionary and handle real objects from the museum's collections, which would have been used by Roman soldiers living in Eboracum (Roman York).

LIVE LIKE A LEGIONARY

KID'S CURATOR TALK – THE ROMAN ARMY

Tuesday 28 October, 12.30pm – 1pm

Learn all about the Roman Army in this special talk by one of our curators.

FIRE AWAY!

Wednesday 29 October, 11am – 1pm and 2pm – 4pm

Drop-in session to create your own mini Roman catapult, based on our nearly life-size replica! Then try firing a pea-sized ballista ball at the Iron Age fort to test its fire power.

When The WORLD CHANGED FOREVER

Medal Making

Daily, 11am – 1pm and 2pm – 4pm

Create your own medal using metallic paper and art materials, or have a go at drawing your medal onto our special 'shrinkle' plastic sheet; take it home to shrink in your oven and produce your very own wartime medal. Guidance and instructions given!

Medals: Pip, Squeak and Wilf

Get up close and personal to some First World War medals from our military history collection and learn the story of Pip, Squeak and Wilf, the medals awarded to those who served in the First World War.

Trench Cake

Castle Kitchen, Daily 10am – 4pm

Learn how to bake 'Trench Cake' in the museum kitchen this half term. There will be demonstrations and even a chance to taste this dense fruit cake which was baked by families during the war as a morale-boosting treat to send to soldiers at the front.

All activities included in museum admission
