

JOINING UP

Every day, 10am – 4pm

Meet the Recruitment Officer in our new exhibition, 1914: When the World Changed Forever, and find out if you have what it takes to join the new volunteer army. Sign up for special drill sessions where you will be put through your paces, at 11am, 12:30pm, 2pm, and 3pm.

CODED COMMUNICATIONS

Every day from 10am

Send your own messages and decode a special message from the museum using semaphore and Morse code in this drop-in activity. Weekly prize draw for correct answers.

ANGEL OF MONS MYTHS AND LEGENDS

Saturday 23 August, 11am – 4pm

Working with an artist, help us to mark the anniversary of the start of the Battle of Mons in this drop-in session. Create your own watercolour, inspired by works from York Art Gallery's collection depicting the story of the Angel of Mons.

The DINOSAURS have returned!

Dinosaur Detectives

Every day from 10am

Calling all Dinosaur Detectives! Precious artefacts are being found with bites taken out of them. Can you help the museum staff solve the mystery? Which naughty dinosaur could it be? Handle dinosaur fossils from the museum collections and follow the clues to earn your Dinosaur Detective badge.

Dinosaur Detectives Family Workshop

Saturday 26 July, 11am – 1pm and 2pm – 4pm

Can you identify the mystery dino bones? Take part in five investigations to find out which dinosaur they belonged to, and make a plaster cast fossil to take home.

Led by museum staff. Booking essential, call 01904 687633.

Dino Dress-Up

Every day from 10:30am

Make your own dino mask and decorate it with collage techniques using our special reptilian paper. Or you can walk with dinosaurs and create your own dinosaur feet, inspired by the museum's collection of dinosaur footprint fossils.

Lego-Dinos

Saturdays & Sundays, 11am – 1pm and 2pm – 4pm

Join us to make a scary Lego-saurus or a vicious Lego-raptor. What will your Lego-Dino look like?

Walk This Way!
