

ARTiculation Discovery Day

Looking ❖ Thinking ❖ Speaking

York Art Gallery

7 December 2017 10:00am – 3:00pm

FREE workshop for Key Stages 4 & 5

- ❖ ARTiculation Discovery Days are designed to engage students with visual art.
- ❖ Students will discover how individual artworks act as a catalyst for wider critical thinking.
- ❖ Students will work together using a range of sources (including articles, letters and interviews) to explore ideas and carry out research.
- ❖ By the end of the day, students will be able to present their findings to a panel of curators and academics.

The content of the day is relevant to English, Art and History.

A team of students from across the University will support the research and presentation tasks throughout the day.

To book your places please contact Gaby Lees gaby.lees@ymt.org.uk.

Places are limited to a maximum of 10 per school and students must be accompanied by a member of staff.
