EMMA METCALFE

Thu 4 Oct 2018, 11am–1pm

For adults. £5 per person, gallery admission applies.

Do you like the idea of being creative but are put off by the fear of making 'mistakes' or doing a 'bad drawing'? Do you start doing a drawing only to rub it out when it 'goes wrong'? This workshop will introduce you to some simple, creative and playful ways of making drawings without using the traditional pencil on white paper.

STEPHEN WATERHOUSE

Sun 7 Oct 2018, 11am–1pm and 2pm–4pm

For families and children. Free, gallery admission applies.

Join children's book illustrator Stephen Waterhouse when he shows his colourful artwork and then have fun drawing and creating your own amazing colourful characters and illustrations!

CHRIS GEESON

Thu 11 Oct 2018, 11am–1pm

For adults. £5 per person. Gallery admission applies.

Bizarre and Fantastic Characters: Join artist Chris Geeson in an illustration workshop taking inspiration from nature, cartoons, fantasy and surrealism to create weird and wonderful characters. You'll be shown how to get ideas for unusual characters and you will spend time creating your own illustrations, whether they be fantastic, grotesque, or comical.

Sun 14, Sat 20, Sat 21 Oct 2018, 11am–1pm and 2pm–4pm

For families and children. Free, gallery admission applies.

No need to book.

Fantasy Creature Workshop: Chris Geeson will be leading drop-in sessions on creating illustrations of weird and wonderful creatures. Using The BFG in Pictures as inspiration, Chris will help you create your own drawing of a fantasy creature, whether a hideous monster or a playful pet.

Lisa Stubbs

KATE BLACK AND CHARLENE CLEMPSON

Sat 13 Oct 2018, 11am–1pm and 2pm–4pm

For families and children. Free, gallery admission applies.

Work with Kate Black and Charlene Clempson, lecturers of illustration at York St John University to create your own Giant. Older children can also create a mini magazine using the Giant as a character.

KRISTYNA LITTEN

Fri 19 Oct 2018, 11am–1pm

For adults. £5 per person, gallery admission applies.

Award winning illustrator and children's author Kristyna Litten will lead a series of fun character development and simple narrative building activities.

Kristyna will discuss her life as an illustrator and author, with particular focus on the journey from sketchbook to published picture book, sharing tips and tricks on how to come up with character and story ideas through 'play'.

LISA STUBBS

Fri 26 Oct 2018, 11am–1pm

For adults. £5 per person, gallery admission applies.

Join children's book illustrator Lisa Stubbs for a friendly innovative workshop helping you to explore your creative side through process and play.

A gentle introduction to illustration via experimentation with various mark making techniques. This fun workshop will inspire your creative thinking and help build confidence. No previous experience is necessary and all materials are provided. Come along and join us for some creative fun!

The BFG in Pictures is a touring exhibition from House of Illustration, curated by Quentin Blake.

York Art Gallery, 2 October 2018 – 24 February 2019.
