A CHRISTMAS CAROL

Back by popular demand, come and join actor Chris Cade as he entertains the crowds throughout the day, with his one-man show A CHRISTMAS CAROL, find the true meaning of Christmas with Ebenezer Scrooge. Still don’t believe in the magic of Christmas? Experience why this time of year is not only for children, but for everyone young at heart.

FOR THOSE INTERESTED IN CRAFTS YOU COULD EVEN MAKE A TRADITIONAL GARLAND TO TAKE HOME.

SPECIAL EVENING EVENT

AN EVENING WITH EBENEZER SCROOGE

14 December, 7pm – 9.30pm

Walk along the cobbles of Kirkgate at York Castle Museum for an immersive and intimate production that will bring the magic of this much-loved Dickens classic to life. On the 175th anniversary of the first publication of A CHRISTMAS CAROL, find the true meaning of Christmas with Ebenezer Scrooge.

MEET FATHER CHRISTMAS AND DISCOVER THE MAGIC OF CHRISTMAS PAST

Every Thursday, from 29 November until 20 December, between 4.30pm and 7.30pm, York Castle Museum will open its doors after hours for twilight visits to see our wonderful Father Christmas.

Step in from the cold wintery nights for a truly unique experience as part of the best Christmas in history. Please note – tickets can only be bought online for this event at yorkcastlemuseum.org.uk/christmas.
